

How Do You Say Good Night?

BY RAINA MOORE

ILLUSTRATED BY ROBIN LUEBS

THERE ARE SO many ways to say good night. Pups say it with a stretch and a yawn. Piglets say it with a kiss and a sigh. Lambs say it with a cuddle and a hug. But no matter how many different ways the animals in this snuggly bedtime book say good night, they all have one thing in common: They say it with love. How do YOU say good night?

How Do You
Say Good Night?

To my grandma, with “lotsy” love.

To my own sweet ducklings, with love.

How do you say good night, my pup?
How do you say good night?

With a stretch and a yawn,
close my eyes until dawn.
That's how I say good night.

How do you say good night, piglet?
How do you say good night?

With a kiss and a sigh
and a sweet lullaby.
That's how I say good night.

How do you say good night, little lamb?
How do you say good night?

With a cuddle and hug
in my blanket so snug.
That's how I say good night.

How do you say good night, dear cat?
How do you say good night?

Soft pajamas, soft light,
soft pillow, just right.
That's how I say good night.

How do you say good night, sweet duckling?
How do you say good night?

In my bed, squeaky clean,
warm and safe, time to dream.
That's how I say good night.

Rabbit
Goes to Bed

Night

You know how I say good night, my babe?
Do you know how I say good night?

Tuck you in, snug and tight,
kiss your cheek, turn off the light.

That's how I say good night, my love.
That's how I say good night.

ROBIN LUEBS has been drawing and painting ever since she was a child. It's always been fun but never quite as exciting as illustrating her first children's picture book, HOW DO YOU SAY GOOD NIGHT? She lives happily ever after in Urbana, Illinois, with her husband, Craig.
